We wish to congratulate the newly elected members joining the EC. We will collectively strive for a positive and productive year ahead. LECTURE ANNOUNCEMENT: There will be a lecture at ZSO Darbe Mehr on September 21st at 4:30pm by Professor Mitra Sharafi. The title of the talk is “Parsi legal culture in British India: The Davar–Beaman Case and Beyond”.

Mitra Sharafi is a legal historian of colonial India at the University of Wisconsin Law school at Madison. She holds BA from McGill and PhD from Princeton in history, and law degrees from Cambridge and Oxford. Professor Sharafi’s research include South Asian legal history; the history of colonialism; law and religion; law and minorities; and much more. Sharafi’s first book, Law and Identity in Colonial South Asia: Parsi Legal Culture, 1772-1947 is being published by Cambridge University Press in 2014. The book explores the legal culture of the Parsis or Zoroastrians of British India, an ethno-religious minority that was unusually invested in colonial law. Sharafi’s next book project is a study of poisoning and medical jurisprudence in colonial India. This is not explicitly focused on the Parsi community, but happily she continues to find many Zoroastrian lawyers, physicians and toxicologists in her archival materials. We look forward to a large attendance of our members to listen to a historic account of immense interest to all Parsi/Irani Zarathushtis.

RELIGION CLASSES: Registration has begun for the following year. The Religion Classes provide a unique opportunity for our community’s children not only to meet, but also to learn about the Zoroastrian religion and its traditions. Our goal is to promote an understanding of the religion and to foster a sense of Zoroastrian identity among our students. We hope to see all of our current students and many newcomers in the fall. Please refer to the enrollment form attached to this newsletter for information on registration.

NORTH AMERICAN ZOROASTRIAN CONGRESS: Early bird registration is now open for the 17th North American Zoroastrian Congress in Los Angeles from December 29-31, 2014. The Congress is hosted by the Zoroastrian Association of California, in coordination with the California Zoroastrian Center. Many social events are planned around those dates to make your extended stay in Los Angeles most enjoyable. Please visit www.nazc2014.org for the program, registration, discounted hotel rates, local LA attractions, and advertising options.

NAZC POSTER SESSION: The North American Congress will include a poster session to allow young Zoroastrians to engage with their heritage in an environment that showcases and celebrates their creativity. Posters (to be 22x28” or larger) can be about anything related to Zoroastrianism. Registration deadline is September 30th. For more information or to register, please contact poster@nazc2014.org.

WORLD ZOROASTRIAN SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA: The World Zoroastrian Symphony Orchestra is slated to play at the Congress in December. If you are a musician and would like to perform with the World Zoroastrian Symphony Orchestra at the Congress, please contact Vira Santoke for more information: (714) 963-1301 or vsantoke@verizon.net.
