FEZANA announces a new book: My Mother Use to Say

My Mother Used to Say: Parsi and Persian Quotations and Vignettes of their Inimitable Language and Lifestyle by Roshan Rohinton Rivetna and Dinaz Kutar Rogers (Illustrations by Kaizin Pooniwala) is a hardcover book published by FEZANA in 2015. It is a delightful compilation of words of wisdom and nostalgic memories from the Parsi “baugs”. It is a great way to remind and regale those who grew up on the Indian subcontinent and Iran about a part of their heritage they left behind. And for the second generation it is a reminder of the wisdom of our parents and grandparents.

Price: US$ 10 per book
Shipping: Shipping in USA: US$ 4 for the first book plus US$ 1 for each additional book.
For bulk or International orders including Canada, please contact admin@fezana.org
The Parliament of World Religions was held in Salt Lake City from October 15th to October 19th, 2015. Below are a few excerpts from the FEZANA panels which were led by Ervads Kobad Zarolia and Jehan Bagli as written by Shernaz Minwalla in the Winter 2015 Edition of FEZANA.

Ervad Kobad Zarolia opened the session reciting and translating Aafreen-Ardaa-fravash – the hymn of harmony:

This is our joint Prayer for Unity, Understanding and Inner Strength!
May we live and work in Consonance with men and women of Merit and Virtue! And above all, Truth!
May we live and work in Consonance with men and women of Merit and Virtue, Benevolence and Goodness!
May we live and work in Consonance with the Souls, in Possession of Inner Light, Truth and Wisdom!
May we live and work in Consonance with Souls, whose Merit and Virtue are ever multiplying!
May we live and work in Consonance with Souls, whose Demerits and Faults are ever declining!

Thousands of participants listened intently, as the President of the Mobed Council, Ervad Kobad Zarolia, recited from our ancient Avesta, many understanding the significance of such a moment. Seventeen audience members, dressed in our saris and daglis, watched with pride as Kobad represented the oldest documented monotheistic religion, Zoroastrianism: Ervad Jehan Bagli, Mobedyar Maneck Bhujwala, Dolly Dastoor, Homi Gandhi, Rustom and Shirin Ghadiali, Firdosh Kavarana, Dr. Khusro and Roya Mehrfar, Firdosh Mehta, Shernaz Minwalla, Marukh Motafram, Behram Pastakia, Rohinton and Roshan Rivetna, Sam Vesuna, and Arzan Wadia.

Ervad Jehan Bagli and Ervad Mobedyar Bhujwalla performed a jashan ceremony followed by a detailed explanation of the significance of the ceremony. An excerpt from the article is below:

The word Jashan means worship or an offering. A Jashan is performed to celebrate various types of occasions: festivity for a private family, celebration of a communal festival of Nature, celebration of a new venture, or for a memorial service.

In all Zoroastrian rituals, Fire plays an integral role. Fire is visualized as the actual incarnation of the Creator—Ahura Mazda—God of Zarathushtra. To preserve and maintain the highest level of purity and to avoid pollution of the sacred Fire’s sanctity, Zoroastrian priests always cover their mouths with a cloth (Padaan) when praying in front of the Sacred Fire.

The Good thoughts and exercise of proper choices in the conception of the Prophet are the guide for mankind to seek out the path of righteousness in life. Zarathushtra, in his search for Truth, identified a Divine Order in the Nature’s working. He designated that order as Asha. Asha is what fits at the right place, at the right time, and for the right reason… in the right manner to produce the right results.

Mankind on this planet is a brotherhood of diverse religious traditions that represent equally diverse concepts of God. Regardless, we must recognize that there is a common bond of Oneness and that that bond persists through the innate Divinity, among all the members of the human race.
Parliament of World Religions – October 2015 (cont’d.)

One of the panel discussions held over that weekend was titled Interfaith Model: Does it Need Tweaking. Ervd Jehan Bagli was a member of the panel. Below is a summary of his feedback on the interfaith movement:

Ervd Dr. Jehan Bagli claimed that the primary objective of the interfaith movement should be to know one’s self profoundly, and to enrich the appreciation of one’s own faith tradition individually. Only then one can cherish the knowledge of other Faith traditions genuinely and gain a friendly understanding of diverse traditions as they truly are. This can establish a more solid foundation for community life and action among people of various traditions. We live on a planet that is fast shrinking to a global village, where interdependence among mankind is inescapable. A strong interfaith organization should demonstrate its major concern to the growing gap between the rich and poor.

Bagli continued to point out that the principle of Nonviolence is a corollary that emerges from the primary Golden rule. Zarathushtra proclaimed it, Gandhi saw it, Martin Luther King saw it, and time is here for all humanity to recognize and respect this basic moral law. This basic value of nonviolence extends not just to the living but also globally to the entire creation. A strong interfaith body should generate means to disseminate the above principle and make it a clarion call in the classroom, in the churches, in the synagogues, and in the temples to provide a firm base for the global harmony in the workplace, in the families, in the communities, and in the nations to pervade through the world.

ZSO wishes to thank Dolly Dastoor for permission to use the above articles. The full articles and text can be found in the FEZANA Journal - Winter Edition 2015. Update on Treatment of Aryana Quettawala

Kaeyan Quettawala, father of Aryana, has provided the following update and status on Aryana’s treatment.

On Monday 4th April Aryana was admitted at the KK Hospital where she received conditioning regime for the transplant for nine days. During this entire duration she remained stable to all the medications that she received, thanks to all the prayers from all our well-wishers. Her doctor also seemed to be happy with the progress so far.

On the 13th Aryana’s mom (my wife) was admitted at the Singapore General Hospital to donate her stem cells for the transplant. Her stem cell harvesting procedure (which lasted for 5 hrs) also went smoothly and by the grace of God she is well and with Aryana now.

Yesterday 14th April the transplant procedure started at 8.30 pm and by 10.30 pm they completed the procedure on our daughter. We hope and pray that the transplant is a success. As informed by her doctor, she will remain in the hospital until her blood counts go up, she is fever free and eating on her own. We have to wait for 2 weeks to see if her counts go up which will prove that the procedure was a success.

These two weeks are most crucial and we are positive that with all the love & support given to us along with prayers from the entire Zartoshti community, Ahura Mazda will make it happen. Ameen!

Once again thanking all who have stood by our side in making this possible.

Message to ZSO membership and community from Dr. Russi Balsara and family

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the ZSO Executive, the ZSO membership, and Zoroastrian community of Ontario for all their support and messages of condolences to me and my family at the sad passing away of my dear wife Moti this past February. She was relieved of her suffering which she bore with great fortitude and courage during these past 11 years. Moti was a great asset to our Zoroastrian community here in Canada, and will be remembered for her kindness and caring attitude towards all. May we pray that her soul rest in peace forever.

----- Dr. Russi Balsara
