Board of Directors Corner

The Annual General Meeting of your society has concluded and we take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks and deep sense of gratitude to the 2015/16 Board for their hard work, commitment and dedication and express our best wishes to the Board for the year ahead.

As detailed on the first page of this Newsletter, there are several activities and religious events planned at the ZSO over the next several months. Participation is the key to having a successful event. Please therefore come out in large numbers and encourage our numerous volunteers at all events. We also extend an open invitation to all members to assist with the pre Muktad clean-up of the Dare Mehr scheduled for Sunday, August 7th. Kindly arrive by 10:00 am.

The sacred Muktad days commence on August 12th and run until the 16th. On the 17th we will bring in the New Year with a Jashan followed by dinner. Another Jashan and dinner is scheduled for Khordad Saal. Please refer to the flyers for these events attached and mail in your cheques if you wish to participate for dinner.

Enjoy the rest of the summer. The Board wishes all a very happy Navroze Mubarak.

2016 Zoroastrian Games – Chicago

The Zoroastrian Sports Committee (ZSC) of FEZANA held its bi-annual Zoroastrian Games in Chicago on the July 4th weekend! The Zoroastrian Association of Chicago hosted 200 sports participants, around 400 including spectators, 7 sports events and 3 social nights.

Attendees gathered in Chicago from all over North America, Dubai and Australia. The three days of events were filled with competitions for adults, youth and kids in swimming, track, volleyball, table tennis, tennis and basketball. Ontario had the second largest attendance at the Games this year after California! Ontario was represented in Basketball, Swimming, Table Tennis, Track and Volleyball. Bahram Jam as always was full of energy and had the spectators cheering louder and louder for the participants. He did a great job capturing our Zarathushti spirit at the Games. He participated in almost all the events with the same enthusiasm. Go Bahram!

Sports and competition are a great way to bring people together. These games showed that our Zarathushtis have good sportsmanship, unity and talent in our community. Some competitions like swimming and track were very exciting as the athletic times were very close. Other exciting games were volleyball and basketball finals which were held on the last day and attended by everyone. Toronto, the favourite Volleyball team returned home with a Silver medal. Parvaz, the other Ontario Volleyball team made it to the semi-final round as did Koolak in fourth place. Dhansak It To Me, made it to the quarter final round. Rain Ballers, The Ringer, Two Buck Chucks and Z Games 100 were eliminated in the first and second volleyball pools. In Basketball, Z-United returned with a Gold Medal. Yashaan Mavalvala won a Gold Medal in Table Tennis and a Bronze Medal in Co-ed 100m relay race. Zamyad Meherji, won a Silver Medal in the Men’s 100m race and a Bronze Medal in Table Tennis.

Ontario also had the following participants in a variety of sports: Negar and Nima Azarkeyvan, Mehrnaz Dehmiri, Dinshaw Bharucha, Jimmy Bhesania, Faraz and Farzad Foroughi, Sarishta and Vahishta Katrak, Bahram, Mitra, Nadia, Roxanna and Tara Jam, Anahita and Ardeshir Jamtorki, Afreed Mistry, Danesh and Dilshad Mondegarian, Bijan and Niyousha Namdarian, Meher and Shermaz Pavri, Avakhshia Pourbemani, Percy Rajwadewala, Homa Rashidi, Darioush and Taraneh Tahmouressadeh, Xerxes and Zenia Unwalla.

The social evenings were spent with good food, entertainment and dancing. One evening, all participants were bused to the Chicago Darbe Mehr to see the Atash Dadgah and do a short prayer before tasting all the wonderful delicacies of Chicago like deep dish pizza, hot dogs and Portillo’s Italian beef sandwiches. The group was then taken to downtown Chicago for a tour and fireworks.

I do highly encourage everyone to attend a Zoroastrian Games if you get a chance as it’s a wonderful experience meeting others with the same passion for sports. For more information on FEZANA or ZSC please visit: www.fezana.org or www.zathletics.com.
